

Can you carry an anvil?

Tideswell strongman Bertie Blackwell did when someone annoyed him in the George Hotel! Five men had to carry it back to the blacksmith.

Horse Power

Horses were common on the streets of Tideswell until the 1900s. Saddles were made in the house to the left of Tindall's shop. Look closely for a metal hook in the wall. Saddles were hung from it.

Explore the history of Tideswell with this activity trail. It goes with the Tideswell Hidden Histories self-guided trail.

This trail has been produced by Visit Tideswell Accommodation Group with funding from the Peak District Sustainable Development Fund, Tideswell and District Community Association, Tideswell Parish Council and Visit Peak District.

Cartoons drawn by John Firth.

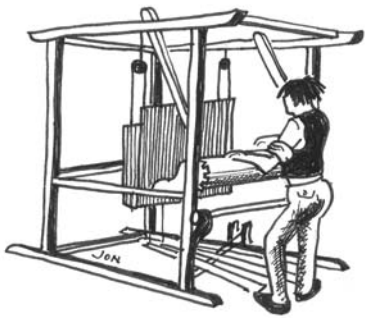

Made by inheritage.co.uk

Supported by the Sustainable Development Fund

Tideswell Children's Activity Trail

5

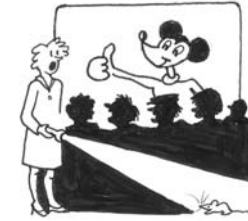

You're Nicked!
Look for the house with the high walls. It used to be the local jail.

4

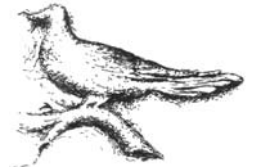

3

Fancy a movie?
Find Bagshaw Hall. It used to be the local cinema. What's the movie you'd most like to see at the movies?

Where's this bird?

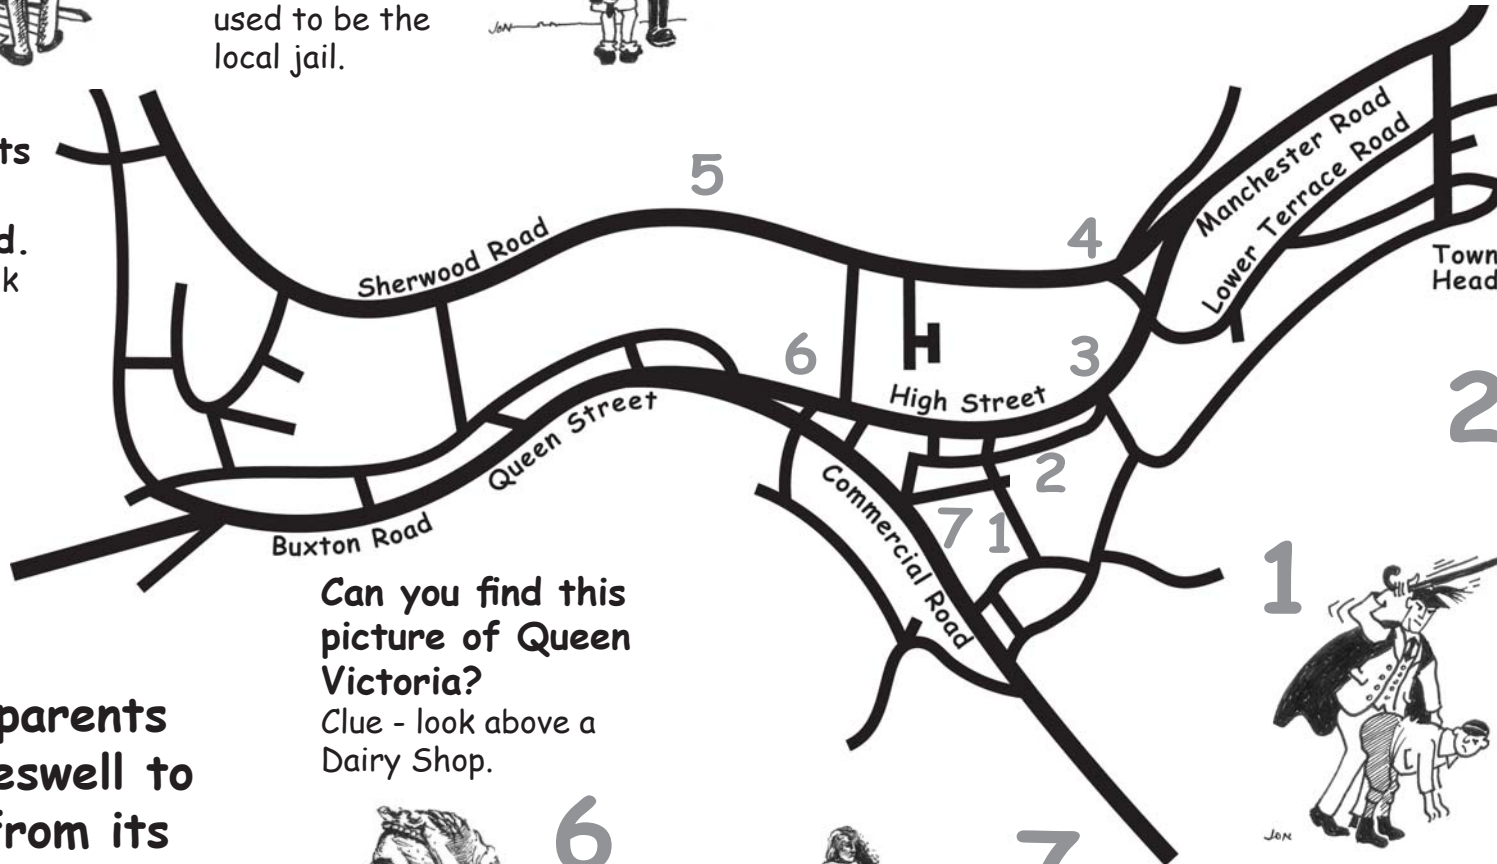

Clue - look above an arch front door on the road to High St.

Town Head

2

Look out for houses with lots of windows on Sherwood Road. Weavers made silk on looms behind these windows.

Take your parents around Tideswell to find clues from its past.

Don't forget to tell them they'll need a copy of Tideswell's Hidden Histories to help them.

Can you find this picture of Queen Victoria?
Clue - look above a Dairy Shop.

6

7

Search inside the church for this carving of a baby being baptised.

1

Don't miss school!
It used to be where the library is today. Behind the church.